

Home Tours

Home Builders Association of Fort Wayne, Inc.

The HBA of Fort Wayne provides the opportunity to tour the latest styles and trends in new residential construction in the spring and fall. These free and open-to-the-public tours feature newly constructed homes, villas and subdivisions throughout the Fort Wayne and surrounding areas. These tours allow potential buyers to Fort Wayne has a very robust residential real estate market and the HBA is proud to bring new residential construction to the forefront of the region's conversation on housing opportunities.

While touring the properties buyers have the opportunity to engage with the builders and associate members that are on-site to answer questions about customization, financing, interior decorating and beyond.
